

Desfilis assists a family group in the acquisition of the Touraine Opéra hotel in Paris from Tikehau Capital

Desfilis advised a family group in the acquisition of the Touraine Opéra hotel, a 4-star hotel with 39 rooms, located at 73 rue Taitbout in the 9th area of Paris from Tikehau Capital.

The acquisition amount is confidential.

The Desfilis team was led by:

- José Desfilis and Nathalie Hollier-Cheyne (partners) and Marine Debu (associate), for the M&A aspects,
- Églantine Lioret (partner), on the tax aspects,
- Marion Kahn (partner) on social law.

Tikehau Capital, an alternative management and investment group, was advised by Herbert Smith Freehills law firm, with a team composed of David Lacaze (partner) and Isabelle Augais (counsel).

Tikehau Capital acquired the Touraine Opéra hotel in 2019.

About Desfilis

Desfilis is an independent French business law firm, founded in 1920 by the former legal manager of the Renault group and historically close to family groups.

Desfilis advises listed and unlisted companies, investment funds, family groups, entrepreneurs, and executives and supports its clients in the main areas of business law: mergers and acquisitions, private equity, financing, taxation, social law, restructuring, and business litigation.

For any additional information, please visit our website: www.desfilisavocats.com.

Contacts :

Sophie Bacqueville – sophie@blue-wall.com / 33 6 73 18 64 49

Léa Gaultier – lea@blue-wall.com